SUN, SEA & SHED - A CAPE PATERSON RARITY

Nestled in the serene coastal village of Cape Paterson, 68 Anglers Road is a home that knows how to follow the sun. A north-facing rear patio and a front timber deck mean you're never far from the light -- morning coffees out front, long afternoon sessions out back. It's a simple idea, and it works beautifully.

This immaculately presented 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom home of thoughtfully designed single-level living, where warm vinyl plank flooring, soft coastal tones, and sweeping sliding glass doors create a seamless flow between inside and out. The sun-drenched living and dining area is the heart of it all - generous, relaxed, and framed by lush green surroundings on every side.

The kitchen delivers where it counts: sleek white cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and a breakfast bar that earns its place whether you're entertaining or simply easing into the morning. Both bedrooms are quietly inviting - the master dressed in soft neutrals with garden views, the second with easy access to the main living areas. The bathroom is stylishly appointed with a timber-look vanity, glass-enclosed shower, and earthy slate-toned tiles.

Then there's the garage. A 7 x 6 m powered shed is genuinely rare in Cape Paterson - room enough for the boat, the bikes, the boards, and everything else a coastal life tends to accumulate.

Some moves just make sense.

For the down-sizer ready to trade the big block and the upkeep for something smarter, or the first-time buyer looking for a genuine foothold on the coast, 68 Anglers Road is exactly that - a home that fits your life without compromise.
