"THE SUNDAY GARAGE"

The Sunday Garage

Every collector has a place. Every project has a home. Every Sunday has a ritual. Set on a picturesque acreage in the heart of Nunderi, this is more than a property—it's a lifestyle built around space, freedom and the simple pleasure of spending time doing what you love. As morning light filters across the paddocks, the roller doors rise and another Sunday begins. Coffee steams on the workbench. Vinyl spins softly in the background. Chrome catches the sunlight. The shed becomes a sanctuary, a workshop, a gathering place and the centrepiece of a life well lived.

Designed for those who appreciate room to create, restore, store and dream, the substantial garage and workshop space offers endless possibilities for car enthusiasts, collectors, tradespeople or anyone seeking the ultimate acreage retreat.

Yet what makes this property truly special is the way it brings people together. Beyond the garage doors lies a warm and welcoming family home, where everyday moments become lifelong memories. It's the kind of place where children ride bikes along the driveway, dogs roam the grounds, and family and friends gather long after the sun has gone down.

The sparkling pool becomes the heart of summer—filled with laughter, weekend barbecues and endless afternoons spent cooling off beneath the Northern Rivers sunshine. From birthday celebrations and Christmas lunches to quiet evenings under the stars, this is a home designed for connection, relaxation and making memories that last for generations.

Beyond the shed, the property unfolds across generous acreage where open skies, fresh air and country serenity provide the perfect backdrop. There is space for family, space for hobbies, space for projects and space to simply enjoy the slower pace that acreage living affords.

Whether you're restoring a classic, tinkering with your next project, watching the kids splash in the pool or gathering loved ones for another unforgettable weekend, 15 Gumtree Court offers a rare opportunity to create a lifestyle centred around the things that matter most.

Because some properties provide accommodation.

This one provides a way of life.

The acreage is the backdrop. The garage is the dream. The memories are made in between.
