RENOVATED FOR THE WAY LIFE REALLY WORKS

5  | 2  | 1

Fully renovated and remarkably spacious, 401 Maungatapu Road offers the kind of flexibility that allows a household to spread out, come together and settle in for years to come.

The main living level is designed around connection. A fresh white kitchen provides excellent bench space and storage, with a breakfast bar for casual meals and a wide outlook across the surrounding greenery. The adjoining dining area opens to the deck, creating a natural setting for summer barbecues, long lunches and relaxed evenings with friends.

A separate lounge offers plenty of room to unwind, complete with a wood burner for warmth through the cooler months. Wide sliders extend the room onto the substantial wraparound deck, creating an inviting place to entertain, enjoy a morning coffee or take in the elevated outlook.

Beyond the central living spaces, a family room with a dedicated office nook gives children, teenagers or those working from home a place of their own. Two bedrooms on this level add further flexibility for guests, extended family or older children wanting greater independence.
