LUCRATIVE LIFESTYLE BUSINESS IN PARADISE

With near on 14 years servicing locals and tourists alike, this takeaway food venue commands one of the town's best positions virtually midway between beach and marina on the busiest side of Port Douglas's main street. With the volume of passing foot traffic the shop represents ease for visitors and an enviable reputation for locals. Choose your hours and choose what's on your menu, recent years has seen the Fish n Chip side boom although initially this was a high end BBQ Chicken venue. Underpinning the opportunity is a strongly marketed invite to all the "Dave" characters of the world to display their face photo for friends and family to find whilst awaiting your sumptuous delights.

Current owners need to move on, closer to an early retirement and offer a kitchen full of quality food preparation necessities.

Dine at their street tables or wander back to the beach, accommodation or other central attractions with your fresh meal or snacks.
