SPACE TO LIVE, ROOM TO ENTERTAIN, UNDERCOVER ALL YEAR

Welcome to this generously proportioned four-bedroom, two-bathroom Inverloch home, offering approximately 220 square metres of single-level living and an exceptional range of undercover outdoor space. Whether you are looking to downsize without compromise or need room for a growing family, this home has been designed to accommodate every stage of life with ease.

Step inside from the covered porch to a wide entry and a 2.0 metre hallway that sets the tone for the spacious layout throughout. Positioned at the front of the home and well separated from the remaining bedrooms, the master suite is a true standout. Measuring an impressive 4.2 x 5.5 metres, it offers a private retreat complete with a generous walk-in robe and a well-appointed ensuite, providing the kind of space and privacy rarely found in homes of this style.

At the centre of the home, a large family room flows through to the open-plan kitchen, dining and living zone at the rear. The kitchen features an island bench with dishwasher, a walk-in pantry and a dedicated fridge space, and it overlooks both the dining and living areas, making it ideal for entertaining or keeping an eye on the family. With two separate living areas, there is plenty of room for everyone to relax, whether that means grandchildren visiting for the holidays or teenagers needing their own space.

Three further bedrooms are grouped together on the opposite side of the home, each fitted with built-in robes. These are serviced by a central bathroom with a full-sized bath and separate shower, plus a separate toilet. A practical laundry with linen storage and an additional cupboard completes the interior.

Outside is where this home truly shines. A covered rear deck of 5.9 x 4.0 metres, complete with built-in barbecue, offers a year-round space for outdoor dining and entertaining. Running along the side of the home, a covered patio and carport provide further undercover areas for relaxing, storage or additional parking, in addition to the double garage with internal access. The rear yard has been thoughtfully landscaped with established garden beds, raised veggie boxes, a clothesline and a garden shed for your tools and equipment.

Offering a rare combination of single-level living, a spacious and private master suite, and exceptional undercover outdoor areas, this home will appeal equally to retirees seeking comfort
