RETIRE TO LEVEL LIVING..

So your wanting to retire to a quiet seaside village half way between Sydney and Brisbane, this may be what your looking for.

Scott's Head is a thriving village of approximately 850 people with a small shopping centre and specialty shops ,cafes and a fantastic bowling club.

This near level block of 869m2 is the perfect spot to build that level home you have always wanted and create access to the yard for the shed to hold all the essentials of retirement(Tinny boat, The Van, workshop and man cave).

Located 600m to the beach you will enjoy the daily morning walk and swim and the grandkids will want to come and visit each school holidays.

Be quick for this one , as level living this close to the coast is hard to find..
