CORNERSTONE OF MINNIE WATER HEADLAND

The owners have a clear motivation to the next life chapter and invite you to come and experience the uninterrupted picture perfect views that dominate this classic Beach House. A property willing to reward those seeking a family sized weekender, holiday rental or play house. This house is practically in original condition from days gone by with art deco fixtures and fittings from its rich history that will tweak a nerve from yesteryear in all. Watching moon rises over the ocean on a balmy summers night with friends and family after a day at the beach is what this home is made for. Whether you want the classic charm, or care to remodel with your own concept, the rooms and space over 2 levels will accommodate. If you are over the crowds or tired of seeing your coastal dreams crushed by urban sprawl and are ready to chill out, then come and experience first hand what the area has to offer.
