STOP , RELAX , UNWIND AND STAY FOR A WHILE.

Set at the foothills of the renowned Mount Warning is this quaint little mobile home that is set amongst the scenery with other quiet neighbours, this mobile home would suit the most discerning buyer.

Ideal for a weekender to take the family for a walking trip up the mountain or to explore the various state forests in the area. Mount Warning Rainforest Park is the place to be.

The area is renowned internationally for the bush walks and the friendly locals are always ready to help or just sit and have a chat.

Thinking about retiring, what would get better, no hustle and bustle, no traffic, only the chatter of the birds or the occasional bell bird in the distance letting you know you are somewhere special.

This mobile home has been very well setup and no expenses has been spared internally with a fully appointed bathroom to rest those weary bones after a bush walk or the kitchen will suit any fussy chef who wants to entertain guests on the large deck with a late brunch or evening meal and that good old yarn with friend or neighbours.

A large living area for the unexpected friends that drop over or a fireplace to relax by on the cold nights or for those hot days there is an air conditioner to chill out to.

The bedroom is large with a sliding door to the front deck to allowing the heralding of the new day and enjoy a relaxed lifestyle.

Sound like you? Why not buy now and reap the rewards later on in life. This home must be sold and for more information contact Luke or Robbie to discuss.
